REPORT OF OVERSEER OF THE POOR

Year Ended December 31, 1950

Board and care of six children	$ 2,166.09
Direct relief to adults and families	876.64
Aid to soldiers and families	637.81
	<hr/>
	$ 3,680.54
Reimbursements	676.51
	<hr/>
Net cost	$ 3,004.03

There were eleven requests for direct relief during the year, but I only granted aid to two deserving families and two single adults.

I had two funeral bills to pay this year, one a local charge, and the other a tourist from the State of Maine who came into town without funds or means of support and died suddenly after arrival in town. I contacted the proper officials in Maine, but could not spin a thread with them, resulting in the town's footing the bill.

I had one man cited for contempt of court as he had become ten months in arrears on his payments for the support of his children.

At the present time there are six children receiving board and care at the expense of the town and only one direct relief case.

Respectfully submitted,

NORMAN C. FOX

REPORT OF LISBON MUNICIPAL COURT

1950

George W. Pike, Justice

Criminal cases were before this Court for the following violations:

Motor Vehicle	126
Drunkenness	7
Unemployment Compensation	3
Indecent Exposure	1
Non-support	1
Larceny	2
Cattle Trespass	1
	<hr/>
Total criminal cases		141

In addition, the Court also heard the following:

Small Claims Court	2
Juvenile Court	5
Civil—Landlord and tenant	5
	<hr/>
		12
Making a total of all cases before this Court		153

Of the above criminal cases, 42 were heard by Beryle M. Aldrich, Justice of the Peace, under special appointment by the Justice because of his absence. Although under the statute any person, other than the Justice himself, who acts as magistrate, is entitled to $3.00 for each case which has to be paid by the town, Miss Aldrich did not receive any fees whatever as magistrate, so the town had no expense because the Justice did not sit on these cases. The Justice is paid a salary; and receives no other fee whatever, except $1.00 for each case in the Small Claims Court under a special statute, which is paid by the person entering the claim.

GEORGE W. PIKE

Justice of Lisbon Municipal Court

REPORT OF THE AUDITORS

We have examined the accounts of the tax collector, town clerk, treasurer, selectmen, overseer, municipal court and trustees of trust funds, and find the same to be correctly cast and properly vouched.
